United Nations S/2018/685

Security Council

Distr.: General
11 July 2018

Original: English

Letter dated 10 July 2018 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council

I have the honour to refer to Security Council resolution 2418 (2018), adopted on 31 May 2018, concerning South Sudan, by which the Council decided to extend until 14 August 2018 the mandate of the Panel of Experts on South Sudan as set out in paragraph 12 of resolution 2290 (2016).

Accordingly, I wish to inform you that, after consulting with the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 2206 (2015) concerning South Sudan, I have administratively extended the appointments and contracts of the following experts until 14 August 2018:

Andrews Atta-Asamoah (Ghana), regional issues
Andrei Kolmakov (Russian Federation), natural resources/finance
Anna Oosterlinck (Belgium), humanitarian affairs
Colin Thomas-Jensen (United States of America), armed groups

I should be grateful if you would bring this matter to the attention of the members of the Security Council.

(Signed) António Guterres
